

I urge you not to replace the current FM translator service with LPFM stations. My family and I have listened to KLOVE for some time now and love the encouragement we receive from this station daily. If this station were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, we would not have another station to tune in to for the quality of Christian programming that KLOVE provides.